Prices for your customized bag start at $199. They contain samples of tile, cabinetry, countertops, paint, etc. There are different styles to choose from like vintage or contemporary as well as different color themes such as neutral or warm. They don't sell the products but each bag has a "fact sheet" that details the products and where to purchase them.

Kind of interesting, huh? Check it out at designinabag.com and put a little design kick-start in your back pocket...
